Constitution

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This organization shall be known as "The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs."

ARTICLE II.

Object.

The object of this Federation shall be to bring together the several Women's Clubs of the State for mutual benefit.

ARTICLE III.

Officers and Delegates.

Section 1. The general officers shall be President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, who shall constitute the Executive Board, to transact the business of the State Federation, subject to its direction, and make a full report at each annual meeting. A quorum shall consist of three members. Meetings of this Board shall be held at the call of the President.

Sec. 2. The Executive Board, the Chairmen of Departments and the Presidents of Clubs or their appointees shall constitute a Board of Directors to consider and promote such measures as shall be for the interest of the State Federation. The meeting of the Board shall be held during the annual meeting of the Federation, one-third of the members constituting a quorum.

Sec. 3. The general officers shall be elected annually by ballot. Each name offered shall be considered a nominee. A majority vote of those present entitled to vote and voting shall constitute an election.

Sec. 4. No member shall hold more than one office at a time, and no two members of the Executive Board shall be from the same Club.

Sec. 5. Each Federated Club shall be entitled to be represented by its President or her appointee, and by one Delegate, such representation increasing to three for Clubs of one hundred or more members, and to four for Clubs of two hundred or more members. Each President and Delegate present shall be entitled to one vote. One of these shall give a report of Club work. In case a Club cannot send a Delegate, a written report shall be accepted.

Sec. 6. The members of the convention entitled to vote shall be: The officers of the Federation in person, the heads of departments in person, and two Delegates from each Club. When only one Delegate from a Club is present, the Club is entitled to only one vote.

Sec. 7. Members of Clubs belonging to the State Federation may be present at the annual meeting and may take part in discussion, but shall not introduce motions nor vote

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. Any Club of ten members or more desiring to join this Federation should make application to the Corresponding Secretary.

Sec. 2. Clubs shall be admitted to membership by a unanimous vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.

Section 1. Meetings shall be held annually. The Executive Board will decide the time after the invitation has been extended.

Sec. 2. Mrs. Fox's Book on Parliamentary Usage for Women's Clubs shall be the authority for the conduct of all meetings.

ARTICLE VI.

Committee of Arrangements.

Section 1. The officers, together with a committee from the Club with which the State Federation is invited to meet, shall be authorized to arrange for the exercises of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII.

Dues.

Section 1. The annual dues from each Club shall be 10 cents per capita, payable to the State Treasurer at least one month before the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

Amendments

Section 1. This Constitution may be amended at any meeting of the State Federation by a two-thirds vote, notice of the proposed amendment having been appended to the call of the meeting.

By-Laws

1. The President of the North Carolina Federation shall preside at all of its meetings, and shall be ex-officio chairman of the Executive Board.

2. The Vice-Presidents, in the order of their election, shall perform the duties of the President in her absence.

3. The Recording Secretary shall keep the minutes of the Executive Board meetings and of all the sessions of the convention. She shall prepare the Year Book and have it in circulation as early as possible.

4. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Federation. She shall keep a list of all Federated Clubs and shall send out all notices of meetings.

5. The Treasurer shall collect and hold all money belonging to the North Carolina Federation and shall deposit it subject to the order of the Executive Board in some reliable savings bank. Her accounts shall be audited annually, and an annual report made to the Executive Board.

6. The Executive Board shall appoint all committees, including the State Chairmen of the various departments.

7. There shall be no salaried officers. Necessary expenses incurred by the officers in the service of the Federation may be refunded from the Treasury by order of the Executive Board.
